What have we heard them say?

What can we imagine them saying?

What other thoughts might influence their behavior?

Thinks

to market goods

internationally or

to deliver samples

related to foreign trade operations.

and documents

and products

carries the goods and passengers through airways by using different aircraft like passenger aircraft, cargo aircraft, helicopters etc

Globalization has had a significant impact on air traffic growth allows long distances to be traveled in less time is that which transports by air, by means of aircrafts, airplanes, etc. Allows the movement of people, goods and mail security, and freedom from limitations to accessing remote location speed, reliability in terms of cargo

faster and more efficient planes that are able to fly longer distances engine to generate and support jobs, strengthen trade and connectivity between people and countries, promote tourism, and connect remote communities.

when it is dark outside, flight attendants will dim the cabin lights, so passengers' eyes can adjust to the darkness

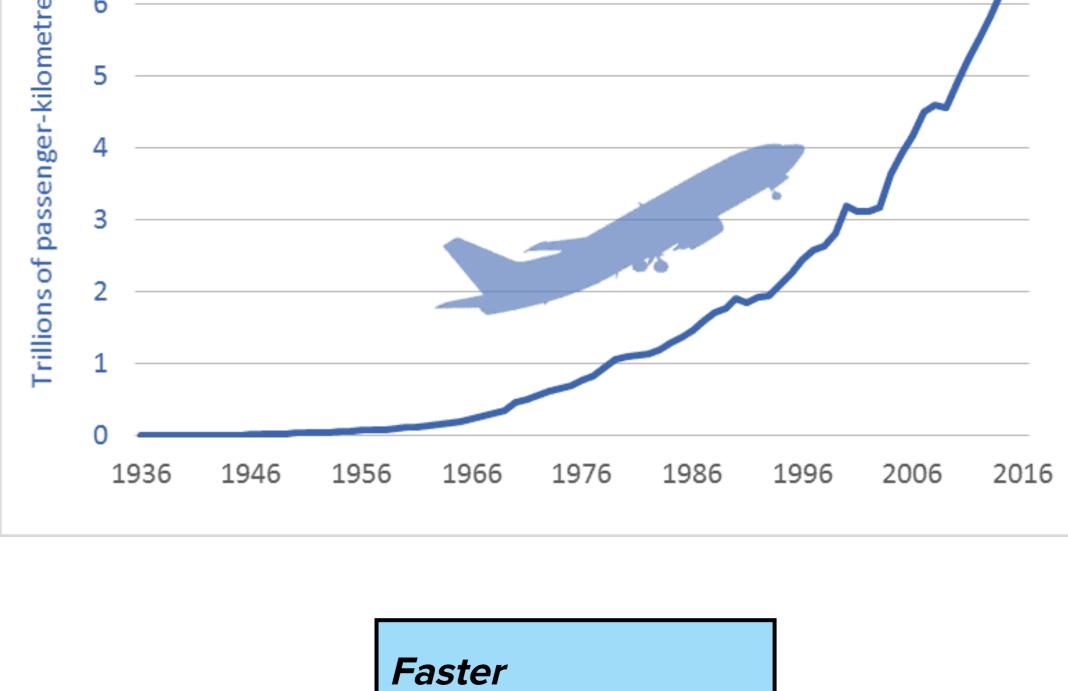

its ability as an economic

What behavior have we observed? What can we imagine them doing?

Aerophobia is an extreme fear of flying.

transportation. ...

Shorter delivery

Security. ...

times.

Ideal for accessing remote locations. ...

robotics, artificial intelligence, the

internet of things,

systems and the

electric airplanes

unmanned aircraft

push for hybrid and

consumption, international trade, tourism, crude oil prices, airline profits and increase in productivity private

air transport can involve higher costs than other options, and is not suitable for all goods

Safety and security concerns:

irrational, worst case scenario thoughts, and confined spaces are breeding grounds for this process.

private consumption, international trade, tourism, crude oil prices, airline profits and increase in productivity

Feels

What are their fears, frustrations, and anxieties? What other feelings might influence their behavior?

